More About Krista

Krista's practice is devoted to representing a wide range of businesses – including household names in agriculture and home appliance manufacturing – to small businesses and individuals in product liability, transportation, and business litigation matters. Krista's wealth of experience across sectors allows her to adeptly manage cases from investigation through appeal. She has significant courtroom experience across the country and has litigated multiple cases to verdict. She collaborates with her clients to understand their business and protect their interests. Krista enjoys learning the industry or science behind the issues and prioritizes open communication and clearly defined goals.

Krista is actively involved in professional organizations on both a local and national level. She served as the co-chair of the Defense Research Institute's Agricultural, Construction, Mining, and Industrial Equipment Specialized Litigation Group for the Product Liability Committee.

She is also a member of the Minnesota and Wisconsin Bar Associations, the Ramsey County Bar Association, the Minnesota Defense Lawyers Association, Minnesota Women Lawyers, and the St. Paul Area Chamber of Commerce. She has served as a volunteer attorney for Tubman's Safety Project to secure protective orders on behalf of victims of domestic abuse. Krista also has served as a mentor to law students. While in law school, she worked as a judicial extern for the Hon. Donovan J. Frank of the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota.
