More About Kyle

In addition to his years of litigation experience, Kyle also spearheads the firm's Electronic Discovery practice. The E-Discovery phase of litigation is key to every client's case. Kyle's team helps clients navigate the preservation, identification, collection, and production of documents efficiently and effectively.

Technology also plays a significant role in a winning courtroom strategy. Kyle also leads the firm's Courtroom Technology Team, collaborating with in-house counsel and clients to tell powerful stories at trial. As an experienced attorney adept at explaining complex information, Kyle gives clients a distinct advantage at trial. He knows what facts are central to a case and how best to present them in a way that aligns with a client's goals.

Kyle received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. During his time in law school, Kyle was a law clerk for Haws-KM and joined the firm full time after graduation.

Outside of the Office

Kyle is an avid skier and golfer. He enjoys finding interesting places to travel, cooking new cuisines, and spending time with his family and friends.
