More About Krista

Krista has significant courtroom experience across the country and has litigated multiple cases to verdict. She collaborates with her clients to understand their business and protect their interests. Krista enjoys learning the industry or science behind the issues and prioritizes open communication and clearly defined goals.

Krista is actively involved in professional organizations on both a local and national level. She served as the co-chair of the Defense Research Institute's Agricultural, Construction, Mining, and Industrial Equipment Specialized Litigation Group for the Product Liability Committee.

She is also a member of the Minnesota and Wisconsin Bar Associations, the Ramsey County Bar Association, the Minnesota Defense Lawyers Association, Minnesota Women Lawyers, and the St. Paul Area Chamber of Commerce. She has served as a volunteer attorney for Tubman's Safety Project to secure protective orders on behalf of victims of domestic abuse. Krista also has served as a mentor to law students. While in law school, she worked as a judicial extern for the Hon. Donovan J. Frank of the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota.

Outside of the Office

For nearly a decade Krista served in the Minnesota National Guard and was deployed to Kuwait. She is an avid runner and loves to travel. She is most happy spending time with her family.
