

Gustavo Ortiz Reynoso

Associate

With each case and for each client, Gustavo takes ownership of the matters he handles and works diligently to solve them. He will identify, evaluate, and explain options so that businesses can make informed decisions. He aggressively defends clients in court and is always ready for the challenge of complex litigation issues.

Contact

Gortizreynoso@hkmlawgroup.com

651-251-8302

More About Gustavo

He focuses his practice in the firm's personal injury and insurance litigation, product liability, transportation litigation, and business litigation groups.

Before joining Haws-KM, Gustavo represented clients as a trial attorney before immigration and criminal court. He served as an immigration attorney providing removal defense before the Executive Office of Immigration Review and the Board of Immigration Appeals. In addition, he served as a criminal defense attorney representing clients in misdemeanor and felony cases before various courts.

Gustavo grew up in Alabama and Tennessee. He graduated from the University of Alabama Huntsville with a degree in History and Political Science.

Out of Office

Fluent in Spanish, Gustavo is also an avid reader of history and fiction. He enjoys the outdoors and spending time hiking and camping. He loves live music and the Alabama Crimson Tide football team.

Practice Areas

- Class Action Defense
- Business Litigation
- Insurance Related Litigation
- Product Liability Defense
- Toxic Torts

Licenses

- State of Minnesota

Education

- University of St. Thomas School of Law
- B.A., University of Alabama Huntsville, History & Political Science

Membership Affiliations

- Minnesota Defense Lawyers Associations (MDLA)
- Minnesota Hispanic Bar Association (MHBA)